Jodi Ward, MS, LPC

HOPE Counseling

Jodi has been counseling individuals and couples for the last ten years. She graduated from Georgia State University in 1999 with a Masters degree in Professional Counseling. She also attended Psychological Studies Institute in Atlanta, receiving a second Masters degree in Christian Psychological Studies. This specialized training emphasized the integration of Christianity and applied psychology, in order to help individuals find emotional, physical and spiritual healing.

Jodi is passionate about helping couples strengthen their relationship, whether they are married or engaged. For the last two years, Jodi focused her career on leading marriage enhancement retreats. These retreats teach couples how to deepen their communication skills and empower them to face marital challenges with a renewed commitment. Jodi also has experience providing professional counseling and consultation services to ministries and Non-profit organizations as well as to business and industry.

Jodi's husband is a Professional Counselor finishing his Ph.D. in Psychology. They enjoy working together, both professionally and in ministry, counseling couples. The Wards feel called to help couples enrich their marriages and to mentor engaged couples.

Individual, Premarital and Marriage Counseling is offered through HOPE Counseling at the Atlanta Vineyard Church. For more information, please feel free to contact Jodi Ward at 404-717-9204.
